

United Nations
Framework Convention on Climate Change

UNFCCC COP-21 Side-event.

“Carbon Capture and Storage (CCS): Achievements and Opportunities for Developing Country Involvement”

Tuesday 01 Dec 2015, 15:00—16:30, COP-21 Paris UNFCCC Observer Room 04

1 year of CCS at Boundary Dam, the world’s first full-scale project on a coal power plant; 19 years of CCS in the North Sea region; CCS policies; EU pilot projects; and new project collaboration opportunities at Boundary Dam and in offshore storage open to developing countries and CTCN.

Agenda:

- 15:00 Welcome, introduction and context-setting – Tim Dixon, IEAGHG (Chair)
- 15:05 19 years of Offshore Operations in the North Sea Region - Philip Ringrose, Statoil
- 15:15 CCS Pilot Projects in the EU - Ton Wildenborg, CO₂GeoNet
- 15:25 The Honourable Brad Wall, Premier of Saskatchewan, Canada
- 15:30 1 year of Operation and New Project Collaboration Opportunities at Boundary Dam - Mike Marsh / Mike Monea, Saskpower
- 15:40 New Collaboration Opportunities in Offshore Storage - Katherine Romanak, University of Texas
- 15:50 Climate Technology Centre and Network - Jukka Uosukainen, CTCN
- 16:00 Summing up and key messages - Tim Dixon IEAGHG (Chair)
- 16:05-16:30 Questions and discussion with the audience

Organisers:

University of Texas at Austin, CCSA, CO₂GeoNet, IEAGHG

